

Fall Opening

PRESENTING A COMPREHENSIVE DISPLAY OF THE SEASON'S MOST CHARMING FASHIONS IN WOMEN'S AND MISSES' SMART APPAREL.

FEATURING EXCLUSIVE COATS—
WRAPS—DRESSES—SUITS—
SKIRTS—WAISTS AND FURS

A showing that is typical of the Manhattan, emphasizing once again our Fashion Supremacy as well as the superiority of our values.

OPENING DAYS
TODAY AND TOMORROW

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO CALL AND VIEW THE NEW MODELS

The Manhattan

121-125 MAIN STREET

COLUMBIA

At the Elks Country Fair in Williamstown just closed W. C. Robinson & Son entered 33 varieties of apples and won 19 first premiums and two second premiums; also first and second premiums on pears. Hubert F. Collins received several first and second premiums on apples, pears, and also on sheep.

A public meeting under the auspices of the democratic town committee was held at the town hall last Wednesday evening, a small but enthusiastic audience being in attendance, nearly half of whom were women. Messrs. Corbett and Congressman Augustine Long were the speakers. Mr. Corbett strongly advocated the adoption of the league of nations and the election of Governor Dix as president.

A very noisy game of ball was played at the Center Labor day between the Columbia club and a team from the Center church camp, resulting in a score of 10 to 1 in favor of the Columbia club.

On the afternoon of Labor day George H. Champlin, accompanied by Bill Wolff and others as his guests, went to Williamstown and witnessed the ball game between the Williamstown team and the Ringer team of Bridgeport.

Many of the summer guests are departing for their homes. On Labor day Mrs. Nathanael Goodfrey and daughter Dorothy of Hartford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Merrifield of Williamstown, Mr. and Mrs. Cable of Brooklyn, N. Y., left, as did Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arnold of Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednesday.

Tuesday last the district schools in town began sessions. The teachers for the coming year are: Center school, Mrs. E. Holmes, Columbia; Chestnut Hill, Miss E. Williams, Lebanon; Hop River, Miss Harroon, Williamstown; Old Hop River, Florence M. Jones, Columbia; Pine street, Grace A. Johnson, Stonington; West street, Lydia H. Freitag, Springfield, Mass.

Claude Hawkins of Hartford was in town Thursday last on business regarding last Sunday with Mrs. Lillian Clarke and the property of his uncle, the late S. Bradman West.

Thirteen of the children in this town who are pupils at the Windham High school are being conveyed for the present to Williamstown by Clayton E. Hunt in his automobile. There are other pupils who prefer to go in some other way more convenient for them.

The show company which was in town for a week, left here last Wednesday morning. The attendance at the performance was generally rather small and the management was disappointed. The voting contest, a feature of the entertainment, resulted in Marion B. Holmes receiving the highest number of votes as the most popular young lady in town, and Jasper Woodward as the handsomest child. Miss Holmes received a silver pearl-handled gracy ladle and Jasper Woodward a child's pearl-handled dining set.

The claim agent of an insurance company was in town Tuesday last and with the company's local agent, Charles K. Hitchcock, called on Annie Bailey, who has made a claim for compensation under the policy carried by the town covering town employees, including school teachers. An assault was made on Miss Bailey last year by one of the pupils, rendering it necessary for her to submit to an operation for two months and remain in the hospital two months.

Mrs. Meyer Cohen of Pine street, who two weeks ago went with her sister, Mrs. Matilda Liebowitz, to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., returned Friday, accompanied by her friends, with Clayton E. Hunt in his car.

A steam shovel to be used in connection with the building of the state roads in town arrived at the Center from Springfield Friday evening, having been towed by two trucks from Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Roberts and their son Perry of Tenafly, N. J., spent last Sunday with Mrs. Lillian Clarke and Raymond E. Clarke, having taken a week's automobile trip through the White mountains. After visiting Williamstown and Windham, they returned with Mrs. Lillian Clarke Monday.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Peter Plouff has been a Hartford visitor.

Mrs. Philip Mathewson has returned from Watch Hill, R. I., where she has spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook and daughter Eunice have returned after several weeks' stay with relatives in Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Frank C. Tillinghast and Miss Marjorie Tillinghast have been in Hartford.

Mrs. John Leach of Danvers is spending a month with Mrs. Philip Mathewson.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rivers have returned home to Groton after spending several days with Mrs. Rivers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colbert Couchman.

Mrs. Cora Day entertained a party of little folks at the Sugar Brook farm on her little daughter Norma's birthday Saturday afternoon.

John Fletcher visited his mother in New Bedford, Mass., Saturday.

Frank Davis visited in Fairhaven, Mass., Saturday.

Master Lester Loring has been ill several days.

Frank C. Tillinghast had a potato 1 lb. 1 1/2 oz. on exhibition at the new town fair, on exhibition at the new town fair, on exhibition at the new town fair.

Several local young people were at the dance given by the Girls' club.

Mrs. Cosmer Young of Danvers was a

Sunday visitor here.

Miss Lucy Broadhead of Mapleville, R. I., has been spending a few days with friends here, where she formerly lived.

There was a large attendance at the Sunday evening service, when a Temperance address was given by A. P. Solandt of Hartford.

The teachers' training class will meet with Miss Pauline Mathewson Thursday evening.

Miss Emma Bradley has returned from a visit with relatives in Lynn, Mass.

SOUTH WINDHAM

The Mission society met on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Walter Abbe, Jr. last Wednesday afternoon and had a food sale, realizing $19.

Misses Florence and Beatrice Budd have returned to their home in Danbury after the summer vacation at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Crane, who accompanied them for four weeks' visit.

Mrs. Helen Tubbs has returned from a visit in Norwich.

Miss Kingsley of Hartford is being entertained at the home of Mrs. C. A. Barstow.

Miss Florence Perkins of North Windham is the guest of Mrs. Clarence Noel.

William E. Backus underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Joseph's hospital, Williamstown, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith of Southington have been guests of Mr. Smith's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Putnam of East Hartford were guests Sunday of their cousins, Miss E. S. Babcock and her brother, Jay Babcock.

Miss Sarah H. Abbe left Tuesday for Wheaton college, Mass.

Austin Wade has moved with his family to Williamstown.

Bristol—Several hundred dollars damage has been done during the recent rains at reservoir No. 5, and the contractors were set back one full week because of this damage.

GALES FERRY

At the morning service Sunday in the M. E. church, Rev. G. H. Wright spoke from Deut. 18:22. The Epworth League service at 7 o'clock was conducted by Mrs. Harmon I. Perkins who attended the recent Epworth League institute at Williamstown and whose topic was Institute Echoes. A poem, The Lost Sheep, was read by Miss Laura A. Perkins and a duet, The Ninety and Nine was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Dudley C. Perkins, with their daughter, Miss Jennie G. Perkins, at the piano.

The wedding of Miss Jeannette Frances Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Fowler, of the Drawbridge, town of Ledyard, and Daniel Ernest Shepard of Pittsfield, Mass., took place at the M. E. parsonage at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Rev. G. H. Wright officiating. The witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Charles La Fontaine, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and the bride's brother, Mr. Fowler. Mr. Shepard is shipping clerk with the General Electric Co., in Pittsfield, where he and his bride will reside in that city. The bride wore navy georgette over navy satin, with hat of the same shade, and carried bride roses. Mrs. Agnes La Fontaine, sister of the bride, wore brown satin with hat to correspond and carried pink roses. A reception was held in the bride's home for relatives and friends.

Oliver Wulf has been spending a vacation of a week from his duties as junior chemist in the Nitrate Division, War Department, at Washington, D. C., at Wulf Den, the summer cottage of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wulf, of Putnam. He returned to Washington on Sunday evening.

Miss Beatrice Jones of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and her brother, Vincent Jones of New Haven, concluded their vacation, Sunday evening, and returned. Their mother, Mrs. E. W. Jones of Mt. Vernon, closed the cottage and the family has occupied for the past six weeks and left for their home Monday.

Mrs. MacKenzie, with her children, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has occupied the cottage of the Misses Mathewson for the month of August, left last week for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Earl Mathewson, in Norwich. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Mathewson of Pittsfield, Mass., with Mrs. Mathewson's mother and sister, have taken the cottage vacated by Mrs. MacKenzie and family.

Miss Edna Mann of New York, who spent her vacation at the cottage of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Mann, of Putnam, returned to that city last week.

Hilliard Bruce was a caller in this place last week. He is now employed at the Rhode Island State Hospital for Mental Diseases at Howard.

The usual informal dance and ice cream sale was held at the Country club house Saturday evening.

Miss Arlene Collins of Albany's Point, is assisting at the village store, earlier, the absence of Postmaster D. R. Povey on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Frederick, Jr., of Meriden left the bluff for their home Sunday in the car, having been guests at the cottage, The Pines, of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, also of Meriden, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kennedy of Norwich have closed their cottage and returned to their home.

Mrs. Nelson Parker and young daughter Margaret, who have been spending some time at the home of Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Hurlbutt, returned to Norwich Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Irving Hurlbutt entertained a family party of twelve at dinner Sunday. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bartlett, of Uncasville, Mrs. Hurlbutt's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Townsend of Uncasville. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus W. Hurlbutt and children of the village, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Bartlett of New London, who were week-end guests, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbutt.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wulf of Putnam, and daughter Helena, have closed the "Wulf Den" and returned home. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Elliott of Norwich, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wulf, who have been spending the summer with them have returned also.

Mrs. Robert B. Burton and daughter, Miss Marie Louise Burton of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who have been spending the season at Lelaure Hour cottage, returned last week to their home. Mr. Burton, who spent the week-end vacation with his family here, preceded them, earlier in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sherry of Bridgeport were guests of Mrs. Sherry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, at their summer home here recently.

Miss Clara Burton of Seattle, Wash., was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Burton, previous to their return to Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

EKONK

The "Whimsical," given by the C. E. society Friday evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the enthusiastic audience which filled the chapel, the entertainment, much of it original, and which was planned by Mrs. A. W. Clifford and Miss Harriet Guild, certainly justified its name. The young men and women all made a big hit and kept the audience laughing at their antics. The programme included a fashionable church wedding, a Japanese tragedy, an Oriental snake charmer and his performing snake, and a dead and dumb Sunday school concert. An original on Old Windham containing local hits, composed by four graduates from Vassar was sung and acted by Misses Julia Guild, Polly Bixby and Marjorie Sherman. Ice cream and cake were sold. The proceeds amounted to $21.10 which will be added to the moving picture machine fund.

Miss Anna Kellner, Mrs. A. C. Jackson and Mrs. Tucker, who have been at Miss Neale's for several weeks leave for their home in Brooklyn Friday.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson spent Sunday with relatives at Columbia Lake.

Mrs. Ada Larrabee returned Saturday after a few days' stay in New York. Mr. and Mrs. George C. Holt is working in a Williamstown garage.

Owing to the thunder shower about 10 a. m. Sunday the attendance at the morning service at the Congregational church was small, only about 35 being present.

Mrs. Mary Parker is in Danvers, caring for Penel Sprague an uncle of W. F. Maine.

Miss Julia Guild resumed her studies at Abby Academy Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Parsons of Boston were at the Inn over Sunday.

Charles Larrabee has sold his farm to New York parties. Mr. Larrabee will move into the Penton house on the Green, which he purchased last spring.

The leaders appointed for the C. E. meeting next Sunday evening is Alfred Abbe. The topic will be Good Work; Fidelity; It; Posing It. The subject of the morning service at the Congregational church is Adonizer's Big Toss.

At St. Paul's Sunday Miss Sweet of Williamstown gave an interesting report of the convention at Westley last June.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Chappell and daughter have returned after spending several weeks at present teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith returned after two weeks' trip to Niagara and Canada.

A cable from Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Lack announces their safe arrival in Pekin, China. Mrs. Lack was Miss Harriet Abbe, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Herbert G. Richardson made a business trip to Norwich Saturday.

John C. Hawkins of Jewett City was a business caller in this place Saturday.

Elmer O. Burdick, Miss Lottie Culver and Miss Mabel Burdick were visitors at the Norwich State Hospital Sunday.

Arthur Parks of Preston has been

WRIGLEYS

5¢ a package
Before the War

5¢ a package
During the War and

5¢ a package
NOW!

The Flavor Lasts
So Does the Price!

threshing oats for local farmers the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Burton and Frank H. Burton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Steadman of Varietyville.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Chapman of Norwich Town were recent callers at Allen E. Gray's.

Frederick Turner and Lewis R. Burton spent the week end in Hartford.

NORTH STERLING

Republican at their caucus for town officers Saturday nominated the following: Assessor, Robert E. Harris; board of relief, Edward R. Rollins; selectmen, H. W. Hates, L. J. Leavitt; agent town deposit, Chester E. May; auditor, Charles M. Perrin; grand juror, S. H. Peckham, W. C. Child, Clarence Lyon; tax collector, Chester May; constables, Bert Johnson, Cyril Paine, Allen Kenyon; registrar of voters, H. P. Hibbard; school committee, E. R. Rollins, O. A. Hiscox.

Frederick W. Hinrichs is spending a few days in New York.

Judge George C. Holt has returned from a trip to Europe.

The new supervisor of the public schools is H. P. Carlson.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Child of New York were recent guests of Henry T. Child.

Exhibition hall at the Woodstock Fair grounds, which was damaged by the recent cyclone is being repaired and will be in readiness on the new date the last of September.

About $75 was raised for the Serbian Education commission at the recent lecture by Dr. Rosalie S. Morton.

The Ladies' society held their first meeting of the season at the Methodist church, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Omori had charge of a Japanese programme.

SOUTH GRISWOLD

Randall Law and family of Gloucester, R. I., were callers at Daniel Tewood's, Monday.

R. W. Terwilliger is confined to the house by a severe attack of rheumatism. Katherine Terwilliger, who has been ill several weeks, is gaining.

Mrs. Percy Bliven was called to Norwich Saturday by the death of Mrs. Bliven's sister.

Winsor Barlow is Auburn, R. I., has been spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barlow.

Charles Spaulding of Auburn, R. I., has been in town a few days, repairing the Jacob Pidge cottage.

J. McElin has the contract for transporting the school children from the West district and George Phillips the East district.

Emile Desbrey is filling his kiln. Stella Tewood attended a bean supper in North Foster Saturday evening.

John Youngblood has been in Boston for a few days.

Merrill Jacques and Alcott Skyles of East Killingly were callers here Saturday.

WINDHAM

Miss Ethel Congdon returned to Killingly High School, Danielson, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jarvis have been visiting several days in Providence. They have as their guest this week Miss Brown of Norwich.

Several members of Ekonk grange vis-charge of the meeting, Mrs. Hamilton being leader.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Waterbury—Mrs. Lucy Haskell Treat of 215 Cook street, was one hundred years old Sunday, Sept. 12.

Dorchester—At the Corbin family reunion, held in Dorchester, Sept. 8, 9 and 10, were held the next reunion in that place in 1921.

Waterbury—The Waterbury High and Gun club has put up a new building at the club and means are being used for the building.

Hartford—Gordon Hines will be in charge as superintendent of the state school for the education of the blind opens Wednesday.

Thompson—The sum of $125,000 to erect a receiving vault in the city cemetery has been left to the town of Thompson by the will of late Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, which has been filed in the probate court.

New Haven—The Yale Medical school will open September 21 with some 12 new students and will nearly twice as many refused because facilities are not available to take care of them.

Portland—Colored people in Portland and vicinity will hold a mass meeting this (Tuesday) evening at 7:30 o'clock to organize a local branch of the U. N. I. A. & A. C. L.

Middlebury—Middlebury university will hold its annual convocation on September 22. According to a statement made by Dean F. W. Nicholson of the university, the total enrollment for the year will be between 550 and 575.

Too Much
Appetite may be as dangerous as too little

When the skin is sallow or yellow, the eyes dull, the head aches or sleep broken and unrefreshing, the back aches, or there is a pain under the right shoulder blade—it is an indication that the body is being poisoned by poorly digested and imperfectly eliminated food-waste. It is a wise thing to take

Beecham's Pills

to relieve these symptoms by helping to remove the causes

Sold by druggists throughout the world. In boxes, 10c, 25c.

